NOFO

RETHINK & RELAX

A change of scenery might be all you need to make a difficult decision, empower an exhausted team or finalize a brilliant idea. But if that new location is also prepped with an exciting menu, fresh drinks and comfortable surroundings – even better. Add a streamlined atmosphere, inspiring interior design and enthusiastic staff to that equation and you’ve ended up at NOFO Rethink & relax – our take on conferences and meetings.

THE VAULT

It's a good thing walls can't talk, because this room holds information. Our most private meeting room The Vault, which also doubles as our wine cellar, suits groups in need of some peace and quiet away from other guests. Regardless if you just want to go nuts with your friends and party, or if you have serious business to discuss, the timeless Italian interior design will surely get you where you want to be.

CLUB NOFO

Creative people need venues matching their personalities, and so we created our chambre séparée Club NOFO. Furnished with art and interior reminiscing of Swinging London, the room captures an energy fit for the events usually held here, like roaring daytime parties, glamorous launches and private celebrations. If you want to inspire, make people feel at ease and provide a great Instagram background – this is the venue for you.

LE SALON

Inspired by French nostalgia, glamorous design and nights that won't end, Le Salon is part of our concept La Belle Époque. This space offers a cozy and laid-back atmosphere – perfect for a VIP feel – and can be combined with a reservation of an adjacent hotel room. This room is also the location of our secret pop-up Negroni bar, available to a selected few in the know.

THE COURTYARD

Our cozy courtyard is a popular destination for Stockholmers thirsty for sun as well as drinks, and we recommend using it for coffee breaks during your conferences with us. If you choose to book the whole courtyard for private use you'll make enemies with after-work craving passersby, but your own crowd will love you forever.

Your summer party venue is served

When creating our dishes, we always start with examining what ingredients the season provides and if we can get them locally. To use simple ingredients and turn them into something completely magical is our passion and philosophy.
